

Double Dollars Marketing and Program Information:

Below is information regarding the nutrition incentive program, Double Dollars, hosted by CACSCW at 9 farmers markets and a produce stand in Dane County. The Double Dollars program provides FoodShare shoppers with a dollar-for-dollar match up to $20 per market day. The money spent by shoppers goes straight into the pockets of the vendors who get reimbursed for the full value of every Double Dollar redeemed.

Please share information and flyers with community members and clients. For further information, please contact Andrew Hirst (Andrewh@cacscw.org)

The 2023 Double Dollars market season begins June 15th and goes through October 15th. You can redeem summer market tokens at the participating Farmers' Markets. Double Dollars distribution season at the Willy St. Co-op will start in October.

Program Details and FAQs

How much can I withdraw?

- Double Dollars will match up to $20 of FoodShare withdrawal per individual per market day. Volunteers can run a balance inquiry on your account when they swipe your card

What items are eligible for purchase?

Eligible products include:

- Breads and cereals
- Fruits and vegetables
- Meats, fish, and poultry
- Dairy products
- Plants and seeds that grow food

Market currency cannot be spent on:

- Flowers or non-food producing plants
- Pet food and products
- Non-food items like toiletries, paper products, household supplies, and cosmetics
- Alcoholic beverages and tobacco products
- Vitamins and medicine
- Prepared foods (for example, anything sold by a food cart)

How do I get my money to spend at the market?

Bring your FoodShare QUEST card with you to the information booth at participating farmers' markets. Market staff or volunteers will swipe your card to withdraw funds. They will provide you with market money and up to $20 worth of Double Dollars.

Do I have to be a Madison resident?

No, anyone who has an EBT/SNAP card can participate – even if you have an out-of-state card!

Is there a minimum amount I must withdraw?

There is no minimum, but you must withdraw in whole dollar increments.

Can I spend remaining excess dollars at any market?

Market dollars, or the dollars you take from your EBT/SNAP card, can ONLY be spent at the market you received them/took them off your card at. You can use your EBT/SNAP card at any market that accepts EBT, even if they don't participate in Double Dollars. If you take off too many Market Dollars at one market and wish to spend them at another market, you can return the excess dollars to your card at the info booth where you received them and take more dollars off your card at a different market.

Matched dollars, or Double Dollars, can be spent at any market that participates in the Double Dollars program.
